Local artists give back through Simply Art Show raffle

Shown above: Reanne Amadio, Community Investment Manager for United Way CSO with Eva Eshpeter, Executive Committee President of the Kelowna Palette Club

March 20, 2018 – The Kelowna Palette Club held their annual Simply Art Show and Gala on the weekend donating all the raffle proceeds to United Way. This year, the raffle garnered $1375 which goes towards the United Way 2018 Community Campaign. Over the last few years, the club has donated over $5400! Another great example of local love!!

About United Way CSO: For 65 years, the United Way of the Central and South Okanagan/Similkameen has served the region from Lake Country in the North, to Osoyoos and Princeton in the South. Our mission is to improve lives and build community by engaging individuals and mobilizing collective action. The United Way invests in three focus areas that support all that kids can be, move people from poverty to possibility and builds strong, healthy communities. We also lead community development initiatives such as 100 Homes Penticton and collaborate on many other initiatives aimed at creating a better life for everyone in the community. For more information on United Way CSO, visit www.unitedwaycso.com, follow us on Facebook or Twitter @unitedwaycso or subscribe to our monthly newsletter: <http://eepurl.com/ddk5Sr> .

Together, we are possibility.
