

BC211.ca - Help is just a click away

What is BC211.ca?

- ✚ A free online information service that is an up-to-date, reliable gateway to community, social, non-clinical health and government services.
- ✚ A single point of access for over 12,000 community, non-clinical health, government, and social services.

What does BC211.ca offer?

- ✚ BC211.ca will connect people to information about:
 - Basic human needs such as housing, food banks, shelters, clothing depots
 - Services for children, youth and families such as childcare, parenting programs, and youth recreation programs.
 - Mental health and addiction services
 - Assistance for people with disabilities, seniors and newcomers to Canada
 - Employment support
- ✚ People can chat online with BC211.ca staff every day from 8 am to 11 pm to direct them to the best programs and services to help them out.

How can BC211 help my organization?

Sometimes the biggest barrier to getting help is knowing where to look. BC211 can help you or your clients find reliable, local information on community services, programs and supports.

- ✚ Caseworkers, caregivers, practitioners and support workers will have a handy resource to provide clients with resources and referrals, saving your team time!
- ✚ BC211.ca is the most reliable online resource available to help people right across the province access information about community and social services.

Every hour of every day, people need help finding services – from finding a homeless shelter, to securing daycare for a child, to home care support for an aging parent. BC211 can help people get the reliable information they need!

Visit: www.bc211.ca or <http://unitedwaycso.com/how-we-help/community/bc211/>

For more information or promotional package including posters, rack cards or business card handouts, contact:
Reanne Holden-Amadio
Community Investment Manager
Email: Reanne@unitedwaycso.com
Call: 250-860-2356

